

Annie's Homegrown Sustainable Agriculture Scholarship Application

Sustainable and organic agriculture is at the very root of our philosophy: Planet to Food. Food to People. People to Planet. We believe that healthy soils and healthy farms are the foundation for healthy foods, which help make healthy people! Therefore, we're proud to support the next generation of farmers.

Our scholarship program assists undergraduate and graduate students who are pursuing studies in Sustainable and Organic Agriculture.

Eligibility Guidelines

Annie's Homegrown Sustainable Agriculture Scholarship Program is open to full time undergraduate and graduate students beginning or returning to an accredited 2 or 4 year technical or college program or graduate school in the U.S. for the 2009/2010 school year. Students must be focusing on classes in sustainable agriculture. International students may apply as long as they are studying at a U.S. school.

Annie's accepts applications postmarked between May 15th and October 30th, 2008. If you are chosen to receive an award, you will be notified by a phone call and email by March 3, 2009, and funds will be dispersed directly to your school on or around June 15, 2009.

Application Checklist

Please compile the following materials and send them in one complete packet to:

Annie's Homegrown Scholarship Committee
564 Gateway Drive
Napa, CA 94558

- Completed, signed application form. All sections are required.
- Personal statement
- Official transcripts
- Two letters of recommendation

Due to the large number of applications we receive, and the fact that our scholarship committee is small, we ask for your patience. We will contact you as soon as we make our decisions. We understand you might be antsy to find out whether or not you are a winner, but we ask that you please not call or email to check on the status of your application. Thank you.
